

Service user food satisfaction survey

25 questions were asked. The residents were asked to rate the quality of meals, choices available, and the helpfulness of staff.

The survey fitted into five categories poor, fair, good, very good and not applicable ratings.

50% of residents completed the survey.

As a result of the survey we have held a meeting with the catering team to discuss the outcome.